MIXED BERRY PIE WITH FRESH FRUITS

A flaky double-crust pie packed with juicy strawberries, blueberries, and raspberries. The filling thickens naturally with cornstarch, producing a vibrant syrup that holds together without being runny. A touch of lemon juice balances sweetness and makes every bite taste like summer. This pie is perfect for gatherings and can be served warm with a scoop of vanilla ice cream or chilled for a firmer slice. The golden crust stays crisp thanks to an egg wash and a sprinkle of raw sugar before baking.

INGREDIENTS

- 2 pie crusts (top and bottom)
- 4 cups mixed fresh berries
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 3 tbsp cornstarch
- 1 tbsp lemon juice
- 1 tbsp butter (dots on filling)
- 1 egg for wash

Instructions

1. Mix berries, sugar, cornstarch, and lemon juice; let stand 15 minutes.
2. Pour filling into crust, dot with butter, cover with top crust, crimp edges, brush with egg wash, sprinkle sugar.
3. Bake 45–50 minutes at 375 °F (190 °C) until golden and bubbling.

BAKED CHICKEN LEGS WITH GARLIC AND DIJON

This baked chicken leg recipe combines garlic, Dijon mustard, and herbs to create juicy, flavorful meat with a perfectly crispy skin. It’s simple enough for weeknights yet impressive enough for guests. The Dijon and garlic marinade infuses every bite with savory depth while baking keeps the meat tender. Serve it with roasted vegetables or mashed potatoes for a hearty, balanced meal. You only need 10 minutes of prep before the oven does all the work—proof that elegant flavor doesn’t require hours in the kitchen.

Instructions

1. In a bowl, mix Dijon mustard, olive oil, garlic, rosemary, salt, and pepper. Coat chicken evenly.
2. Place chicken on a lined baking tray and bake at 400°F (200°C) for 40–45 minutes until golden and cooked through.
3. Let chicken rest 5 minutes before serving to retain juices. Pair with mashed potatoes or roasted veggies.

FRENCH ONION SOUP WITH VEGGIE STOCK

This French onion soup uses a flavorful vegetable stock for a lighter yet deeply satisfying take on the classic. Onions are slowly caramelized until golden and sweet, then simmered in broth with a splash of white wine for complexity. Finished with toasted baguette slices and melted Gruyère cheese, it's the ultimate comfort bowl. The slow cooking of onions is key—patience transforms their sharpness into velvety sweetness. Perfect for cozy dinners or cold evenings when you crave something rustic and heart-warming.

INGREDIENTS

4 large yellow onions, thinly sliced	2 tablespoons butter	1 tablespoon olive oil	6 cups vegetable stock
½ cup white wine	1 teaspoon thyme	Salt and pepper to taste	4 baguette slices
½ cup shredded Gruyère cheese

Instructions

1. In a pot, melt butter with olive oil. Add onions and cook on low heat for 30–35 minutes until deep golden brown.
2. Deglaze with wine, scraping the pot, then add stock and thyme. Simmer uncovered for 25 minutes.
3. Ladle soup into bowls, top with baguette and cheese, then broil until bubbling and golden.

PASTA WITH ARUGULA AND SHAVED PARMESAN

A light and fresh pasta dish ready in under half an hour. Peppery arugula, nutty parmesan, and olive oil combine with al dente noodles for effortless elegance. The residual heat from the pasta gently wilts the greens, making them tender yet lively. Add lemon zest for brightness or toasted pine nuts for crunch. It’s as simple as it is sophisticated—ideal for busy weeknights or casual gatherings.

INGREDIENTS

- 8 oz spaghetti or tagliatelle
- 1/3 cup shaved parmesan
- 1 tsp lemon zest
- 2 cups arugula
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- Salt & pepper

Instructions

- 1.Boil pasta in salted water until al dente.
Reserve 1/2 cup cooking water; drain.
- 2.Combine pasta, olive oil, lemon zest, arugula, and cheese. Toss with a splash of pasta water until creamy.

THE BEST HUNGARIAN BEEF GOULASH RECIPE

Hungarian beef goulash is a warm, aromatic stew that has been loved for centuries. Made with tender chunks of beef, onions, paprika, and bell peppers simmered in a rich broth, it delivers deep savory flavor and comforting texture. Traditionally served with egg noodles, potatoes, or bread, this dish is ideal for cold evenings or family gatherings. The slow cooking ensures melt-in-your-mouth beef and a sauce bursting with smoky paprika and subtle sweetness from the vegetables.

In the same pan, sauté onion, garlic, and bell pepper for 5 minutes until softened. Add paprika and saffron; stir briefly.

MAKE CHICKEN PAELLA
IN UNDER AN HOUR

This quick chicken paella captures the essence of Spanish coastal cooking — colorful rice, tender chicken, and aromatic spices all in one pan. Traditionally cooked over open flame, this version adapts beautifully to the home kitchen. Saffron lends the signature golden hue and fragrance, while smoked paprika gives depth. The key is letting the rice absorb every bit of flavor without stirring, allowing a crispy layer (socarrat) to form at the bottom. Perfect for weeknight dinners that feel like a celebration.

Add rice and broth, return chicken, and season with salt and pepper. Simmer uncovered for 20–25 minutes until rice is tender and liquid absorbed. Add peas near the end and serve warm.

Instructions

1. Place sliced sweet potatoes in a pot of salted boiling water and cook for 5–6 minutes until just tender but not falling apart. Drain and let them cool slightly.
2. In a large bowl, toss the parboiled slices with olive oil, smoked paprika, garlic powder, salt, and black pepper. Make sure each piece is evenly coated.
3. Preheat the grill to medium heat (about 375°F/190°C). Place the sweet potato slices directly on the grates. Grill for 3–4 minutes per side until golden brown with visible grill marks.
4. Transfer to a plate and sprinkle with fresh herbs. Optionally, drizzle with lime juice, tahini, or a touch of honey for added flavor. Serve warm as a side dish or light appetizer.

GRILLED SWEET POTATOES

Grilled sweet potatoes are the ultimate blend of sweet and smoky, with a caramelized exterior and a soft, creamy center. They’re incredibly simple to prepare yet deliver rich flavor and vibrant color to any summer meal. When seasoned with olive oil, garlic, and a touch of smoked paprika, these orange-hued slices become an irresistible side dish that pairs beautifully with grilled meats, salads, or plant-based mains. Whether cooked on an outdoor grill or an indoor grill pan, the result is consistently delicious—sweet, tender, and just a little crisp around the edges.

Cooking

- 2 large sweet potatoes, scrubbed and sliced into ½-inch rounds
 - ½ teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
 - ¼ teaspoon black pepper
- 1 teaspoon smoked paprika
 - Fresh parsley or cilantro, chopped (for garnish)
- ½ teaspoon garlic powder

Instructions

1. Heat olive oil in a large pot. Add garlic, zucchini, and bell pepper. Sauté for 3 minutes until slightly softened.
2. Add pasta, broth, tomatoes, salt, and pepper. Bring to a boil, then simmer uncovered for 10–12 minutes until pasta is al dente and liquid thickens.
3. Stir in spinach until wilted. Sprinkle Parmesan and lemon zest. Serve hot.

ONE-POT PASTA PRIMAVERA

One-pot pasta primavera is a simple yet elegant vegetarian dish bursting with fresh vegetables and delicate flavors. This recipe combines tender pasta, zucchini, bell peppers, cherry tomatoes, and spinach, all cooked together in one pot with garlic and olive oil. The starchy pasta water creates a silky sauce that coats every strand, making it light yet creamy. It’s quick, wholesome, and perfect for weeknights when you want something satisfying without the cleanup. Add a sprinkle of Parmesan and lemon zest for a restaurant-quality finish.
